†USF

AJCU 2008

at the University of San Francisco

Home
Registration
Schedule
Hotel
Map, transportation and sights
Contact us
USF Gleeson Library | Geschke Center
USF ITS

AJCU 2008 Joint Conference on Information Technology Management, Libraries and Educational Technology

Schedule

Sunday, March 30

	Arrival and check-in
11:00-5:45	Visit to Santa Clara University's Learning Commons, Technology Center and Library and to Testarossa Vineyards (optional activity - $20 per attendee or guest)
6:00	Welcome Reception at Hotel Kabuki Imperial Ballroom A (Light hors d'oeuvres, wine, beer, soda, cash bar) (Optional activity but no extra fee)

Monday, March 31

	CIO	CITM	EdTech	Library
8:00	Shuttle from hotel to USF
8:10	Shuttle from hotel to USF
8:00-8:40	Continental breakfast at USF
8:40-8:45	Fr. Privett, President, USF Welcome, Invocation
8:45-10:15	The Jesuit Commons: A 21st Century Incarnation of a 16th Century Vision The Jesuit Commons, also called the "Messina Commons", is an effort to spark resource sharing, new programmatic initiatives and deeper collaboration among the Jesuit network of developed and developing world schools and other ministries in order to better serve the world's poor. The slide presentation will introduce the initiative, seek your feedback, and, importantly, seek your active involvement going forward! Chris Lowney and Paul Locatelli, S.J.
10:15-10:30	Break
10:30-12:00	Campus Roundup	Campus Roundup	Campus Roundup	Campus Roundup Moderated by Evelyn Minick, Saint Joseph's University Program Committee
12:00-1:00	Lunch
1:00-2:30	Cracker Barrel Sessions Campus Emergency Notification Change Control Management in IT Prod. Environment Course Management Systems Data Warehousing Disaster Recovery Distance Learning Support Faculty Digital Literacy Fair Use in the Digital Age First Year Experience Support Messina Commons Mobile Devices Support Open Source Products Second Life Servers, Library: Who Runs Them & Why? Service Desks, Shared - Library/IT/EdTech Shared Services & Joint Purchases - Efficiencies Web 2.0: Wikis, Blogs & other social networking
2:30-3:00	Break
3:00-4:00	I.T. DOES MATTER!! IF?? WHEN?? Presentation related to "The Big Switch" John McFadden, Executive in Residence, Loyola College in Maryland
4:00-5:00	Birds of a Feather - continue the book discussion or focus on one of a few popular Cracker Barrel topics
5:00	Shuttle from USF to hotel
5:15	Shuttle from USF to hotel
6:15-9:00	Signature Bay Cruise, including dinner - no extra fee for attendees, $150 fee per guest

	CIO	CITM	EdTech	Library
8:15	Shuttle from hotel to USF
8:30	Shuttle from hotel to USF
8:15-9:00	Continental breakfast at USF
9:00-10:30	AJCU-CITM Pilot Mentoring Program - In the Service of Others A presentation of the AJCU-CITM pilot IT Mentoring Program. This program ran for six months in fall 2007. Its goals were to provide AJCU member schools with an effective IT staff development resource for outstanding IT staff who, in the judgment of their sponsors, have leadership potential. The AJCU IT Mentoring Program endeavored to offer these staff the opportunity to develop their skills and broaden their perspective on the issues and challenges IT professionals face in higher education. Personnel/institutions involved: Fordham - Jason Benedict, Shannon Ortiz Holy Cross - Ellen Keohane Gonzaga - Chris Gill University of San Francisco - Tracy Schroeder, Aoüie Remigio Loyola College in Maryland - John McFadden Loyola University Chicago - Dan Vonder Heide, Susan Malisch Scranton University - Connie Wisdo		Webconferencing Working Session: Reaching Decisions Over the past 10 months JesuitNet has sponsored a working group from 16 of the AJCU institutions and JesuitNet to review webconferencing solutions. The group reviewed: Wimba, Marratech, iLinc, Adobe Connect (formally Macromedia Breeze), WebEx, and Elluminate. During this working session, the process and results of the group's evaluations will be shared and discussed. A discussion will also begin on next steps, which may include a consensus decision of which webconferencing platform to promote and how best to utilize the platform through AJCU/JesuitNet. Moderators: David Lees, St. Joseph's University, and Colette O'Meara-Hanson, Creighton University	Shared Photo Archive – Where Do We Go from Here? John McGinty, Loyola Maryland
10:30-11:00	CIO Roundtable	Break
11:00-12:00	Tours: IT Infrastructure, Library, Classrooms and Labs
12:00-1:00	Lunch & group photo
1:00-2:30	Business Meeting		Business Meeting	Virtual Reference Update Erin McCaffrey, Regis University LibQUAL Alternatives for Collaborative Assessment - Committee Report John Popko, Seattle University
2:30-3:00	Break
3:00-5:00	Transforming Service Through the Learning Commons Keynote: Dr. D. Russell Bailey, Library Director, Providence College Dr. Bailey will provide an overview of the development and expansion of the Learning Commons concept, recent trends, and the varieties of administrative models functioning today. He will also share examples from his most recent publication: "Transforming Library Service Through Information Commons - Case Studies for the Digital Age", ALA Editions, February, 2008. Following his presentation, Dr. Bailey will moderate a panel with two teams from Jesuit Universities forging new IT/Library collaborative models. Robert Seal, Library Dean, and Susan Malisch, CIO, Loyola University Chicago Allison Morgan, Assistant Library Director, and Robert Cotter, AVP for Information Resources, Xavier University
5:00-6:00	Reception, sponsored by Network Architects Representatives from conference sponsors may attend.
5:45 and 6:15	Shuttles from USF to hotel
	Dinner on own

	CIO	CITM	EdTech	Library
8:15-9:00	Continental breakfast at hotel; all morning activities in hotel facilities

Time
9:00-9:30	IT Funding Panel Discussion	Online Learning in Action Two presenters will discuss the technical aspects of their co-taught, linked, hybrid style interdisciplinary course in religion, media and cultural studies, in which more than 60 students were enrolled on two campuses (Santa Clara and Marquette), and which involved 14 videoconferences point to point, virtual student teams, both of which used a shared course site on ANGEL, and three linked classes that were 4 way, 3 way, and one international link with the Vatican.	Business Meeting Michael LaCroix, Creighton University, presiding
9:30-10:00		Online Learning & the Ignatian Paradigm This presentation is a conversation about how attributes of Jesuit education and the Ignatian paradigm can be integrated into the design and production of online courses. During this presentation lessons learned in working with Jesuit schools will be shared. Reactions from Fordham and Gonzaga faculty and students are included. Kathleen Snyder, JesuitNet
10:00-10:30		Web 2.0 Solutions: Evaluating the Options In this presentation, we'll discuss the process that USF and SJU undertook in selecting and implementing a wiki and blog solution for their institution. Examples of how SJU implemented Campus Pak will be provided along with the process that USF has undertaken in the selection of a wiki/blog solution. John Bansavich, University of San Francisco David Lees, St. Joseph's University
10:30-11:00	Break
11:00-12:00	IT Security Panel Discussion	MUVE'ing Into the Future: Teaching and Learning in Second Life In our presentation, we'll show you how faculty and students are using Second Life, a Multi-User Virtual Environment, for teaching and learning across many disciplines. We'll go live into SL, for a tour of Santa Clara University's virtual campus, and other educational landmarks. Michael Ballen, Santa Clara University Jon Pray, Marquette University
12:00	Boxed lunch & depart		