New Presidents or Provosts: Chandler-Gilbert CC, Dartmouth College, Holy Names U., Khalifa U. of Science, Technology and Research, Loyola U. Chicago, U. of Central Missouri, U. of Victoria, U. of Wisconsin-Stevens Point

June 9, 2010
By Doug Lederman

* Charles M. Ambrose, president of Pfeiffer University, in North Carolina, has been selected as president of the University of Central Missouri.
* Carol L. Folt, acting provost and dean of the faculty of arts and sciences at Dartmouth College, in New Hampshire, has been named to the provost position on a permanent basis.
* William J. Hynes, president of St. Norbert College, in Wisconsin, has been selected as president of Holy Names University, in California.
* Tod A. Laursen, professor and chair of mechanical engineering and materials science at Duke University, in North Carolina, has been chosen as president of Khalifa University of Science, Technology and Research, in Abu Dhabi.
* Linda Lujan, interim president of Chandler-Gilbert Community College, in Arizona, has been named to the position on a permanent basis.
* Bernie L. Patterson, provost and vice president for academic affairs at Oklahoma City University, has been selected as chancellor of the University of Wisconsin at Stevens Point.
* John P. Pelissero, interim provost at Loyola University Chicago, has been chosen for the job on a permanent basis.
* Reeta Chowdhari Tremblay, vice-president academic and pro vice-chancellor pro tempore at Memorial University of Newfoundland, has been appointed vice-president academic and provost at the University of Victoria, in British Columbia.