Dial M For Murder coming to Cuneo Mansion

The Cuneo Mansion and Gardens welcomes back the Kirk Players for a run of their mystery thriller.

By Loyola Student Dispatch
September 17, 2010

Dial M for Murder became a classic when Alfred Hitchcock brought it to the big screen with Ray Milland, Grace Kelly, and Robert Cummings. The Kirk Players' stage version, combined with the vivid setting of Loyola's Cuneo property, is sure to keep the audience at the edge of their seats.

The Cuneo Mansion and Gardens welcomes back the Kirk Players for a six-week extended run of their mystery-thriller, Dial M for Murder. Performances will begin October 15, and run through November 21, 2010, on the Cuneo property. The first two weeks of the production are reserved for season ticket holders, and the remainder of the shows, beginning November 5, is open to the general public.

The Kirk Players is a not-for-profit corporation of volunteers who are organized as a "Community Stock Company." They were formed to serve the Lake County community and they perform interactive plays for all ages.

To make reservations for Dial M for Murder, please call 312.915.7800. For ticket prices and more details, please visit Kirkplayers.com, or call 847.566-6391.

Cuneo Mansion and Gardens is located at 350 N. Milwaukee Avenue in Vernon Hills.