Gen Y: Paving the Highway to the Future

Event Information:
Date:
Wednesday, January 19 2011 @ 8:30am

Admission:
$20 for WOTW, Gen Y, and UCWBG members; $25 for nonmembers

Venue:
Mid-America Club
200 East Randolph Street, 80th Floor
Chicago, IL 60601

Presenter:
Women of the World
312-467-0607

Other Details:
This moderated panel will consider the "empowerment philanthropy" model of VDay, what’s important to "generation Y" women, social responsibility, and work ethics. Noeleen McGrath of McGrath Communications will moderate the panel, which includes: educator Janet Deatherage, Associate Dean of Loyola University Chicago and Director of Women's Leadership; Laura Waleryszak, College and Community Campaign Associate for VDay; and executive coach Elene Cafasso, President of Enerpace and vice president of programs for the University of Chicago Women's Business Group, a collaborative partner for this important event.

Since February 2009, Women of the World has held 17 panels covering a myriad a topics. Central to our core values is elevating awareness about violence against women.