Best College Reviews Reveals Ranking of the World's 30 Most Beautiful College Cathedrals and Churches

January 20, 2013

Best College Reviews has released a ranked list of the 30 most beautiful college cathedrals in the world. The ranking of college and university cathedrals and churches places special emphasis on the quality of architectural design, aesthetics and the overall role that the building plays on its campus and the life of its students: http://www.bestcollegereviews.org/features/the-30-most-beautiful-college-cathedrals/.

While other groups have published similar rankings of campus cathedrals before, Best College Review's ranking is the largest and most comprehensive, including university affiliated churches and cathedrals from all over the world.

"Campus cathedrals play an important role in the educational community, both as beautiful centerpieces for campus aesthetics and as gathering points for students of faith," said JD Arney, chief author and researcher for the list.

College cathedrals and churches that made the ranking from the United States include:

Bowdoin College - Bowdoin Chapel
Columbia University - St. Paul's Chapel
Duke University - Duke Chapel
